Dear Dr. Codevilla,

Thank you for accepting our invitation to participate in the forthcoming conference on Soviet Deception of U.S. Intelligence: Concepts, Techniques, and Prospects, to be held at the Airlie House in Warrenton, Va., 29-31 August 1984.

A conference agenda is enclosed. Administrative details will be sent to you shortly under separate cover. If you have any questions in the meantime, please contact [redacted] Conference Director, at [redacted] Conference Administrator, at the same numbers.

Since we intend to publish a volume of conference proceedings shortly thereafter, I would also appreciate your sending a synopsis (5 pages or less) of your intended panel presentation to the Conference Director, Foreign Intelligence Capabilities Group, 3E47 Hqs., at any time before the conference convenes.

I view intelligence deception as an important issue for community attention, and I look forward to hearing your views at the panel on how we should best approach this issue during our conference discussions.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
